Theater Literature Syllabus
2023-2024
Instructor: Ms. Kassandra Hazard
Phone: 912-395-5000 Ext. 722115

Plan Period: 3A and/or 4B or by appointment. Room 115

Course Description
Throughout this course, students will delve into various aspects of theatre literature, examine its historical development, different forms, and its significance in the study of theatre. Students will have the opportunity to engage in critical analysis, participate in discussions, and undertake a final project or presentation to showcase their understanding of the course material.

Expectations
1. Respect for fellow students and instructors
2. Enthusiasm and Open Mindedness
3. Be on time and ready for class

Integrity
School policies outlined in student handbook will be enforced.

Consequences
1st Warning: in class reminder of expectations
2nd Warning: Discussion with teacher
3rd Warning: Meeting with parent or guardian, office referral, or detention.

Materials
Most coursework will be done online, so bringing a technological device to read with class is required.
Paper and pencil required.

Assignments and Grading

We will read plays aloud in class, do exercises, in class projects, and discussion to reinforce the material learned. Homework is due the start of the class period set by instructor.

Active and Thoughtful Participation in Discussions 25%
Quizzes 15%
Exams 30%
End of Semester Final 20%
Extra Credit 10%

Late Work and Absences
50% grade deduction past due date (no exceptions)
If assignment is not turned in by the following day a grade of 0 will be given (no make ups)
 The SAA Theatre Department will always follow the school's late work policy as long as the situation fits the criteria. For all other instances, the Theatre Department policy will apply.

See QR Code for note and bio on Ms. Hazard

 Please sign that you have read and agree to the information provided. Have students bring in signed at next class.

Please list anything you would like me to be aware of in regard to how I can best help you or your child learn.

Date:
Parent Signature:

Date:
Student Signature: